In this Governing Council meeting we had Guest Bob Selverstone come in and give the Council a special session on, "What is really important to me". In this session we discussed things in our lives that we enjoying doing. It was also discussed how these hobbies affect us in different ways: financially, socially, or if we were just making time for enjoyment through these hobbies. Overall the turnout was great and the session itself seemed to really hit home with the visitors as well as the council members. It was a pleasure having Dr. Selverstone take the time to come and conduct this session. We cannot wait for the next upcoming session in February.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 6:56 pm.
